

AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP THEORY

- AUTHENTIC LEADERS not only inspire those around them, they bring people together around a shared purpose and common set of values, motivating them to create value for everyone involved.
- Have the passion to unite others and address the toughest problems that are faced
- More concerned about serving others than they are about their own success or recognition
- Lead with their hearts as well as their heads
- Pursue their purpose with a passion
- Practice solid values
- Establish connected relationships
- Demonstrates self discipline

Tommy is always the baby in charge, making sure that the whole group is alright before thinking of himself.

Tommy is usually the first to check out a scary situation or act on solving a sticky situation.
